

Professor Bill F. Kiker University of South Carolina – USA

(O Professor Bill F. Kiker foi igualmente orientador de várias teses de doutoramento de investigadores portugueses)

Listed in Who's Who in America and Who's Who in the World, B. F. Kiker (Ph.D, Tulane University) is a University Chair Professor at the University of South Carolina. Holder of the Jeff B. Bates Chair, Professor Kiker joined the faculty in 1965 as an Assistant Professor, became Professor in 1971 and University Chair Professor in 1973. He served as Director, Center for Studies in Human Capital, from 1972 through 1975 and Chairman, Department of Economics, from 1973 through 1986. He was a Visiting Professor, University of Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1973, a Fulbright Scholar, Faculdade de Economia do Porto, Portugal, in 1988 and a Visiting Professor, Faculdade de Economia do Minho, Braga, Portugal in May of 1995 and 1996.

The author or co-author of Macroeconomic Analysis and Policy, Investment in Human Capital, The Economic Experience of Return and Non-Return Migrants for the Southeast, and Human Capital: In Retrospect, Professor Kiker's articles have appeared in leading journals such as American Economic Review, Journal of Political Economy, Journal of Economic Literature, Southern Economic Journal, Oxford Economic Papers, Economica, Economic Inquiry, Journal of Labor Economics, Oxford Bulletin of Economics and Statistics, Journal of Human Resources, Economics of Education Review, Applied Economics, Economic Letters, Journal of Labor Research, Journal of Air Law and Economics, The Social Science Journal, Social Science Research, Journal of Consumer Research, Journal of Risk and Insurance, Journal of Behavioral Economics, Eastern Economic Journal, Scottish Journal of Political Economy, History of Political Economy, Decision Sciences, Socio-Economic Planning Sciences, Journal of Common Market Studies, and Economics of Planning. He is on the editorial board of several journals.

Professor Kiker's academic fields of specialty are human capital and applied microeconomics.